Messrs Chapman, Kents,

Your favor is at hand.
I cannot send Callee to you, but would be most happy to meet your representative at Harris House Lowell at any time and inspect it.
April 7 is the limit
for receiving bids for it in its entirety.

Please send me a

Lowell of 29/92

My Dear Sir.

The Collection will be broken up on May 4th as no parties
have said to take it entire at a fair valuation. I should have preferred to close it out at once
as I cannot spare
time to peddle it out, and would have sold it at a low figure.

Yours
L. L. Ho

My Dear Sir,

Having suddenly
been called for a long journey, I have just received your favor
on my return.

The collection remains the same as at last writ-ting, and I dislike to dispose of it by piecemeal as I cannot spare the time to attend to
it. The Heirs and myself have set a price of $5000 upon it and we are expecting two parties for examining
it. Will advise you

Soon as to the price you ask about, if I do
sell the entire collection I think it is unrecul-

My dear Sirs.

I have neglected to answer your favor partly on account of sickness and partly waiting to hear from other parties who are negotiating for the collection.

I have never doubted the creditability of your firm, and if I were obliged to pack it and send it away, no one would sooner receive it than your firm. But my object is to put as little labor in it as possible to receive the best results, and to pack so large a collection properly is no small job. However if I am obliged to adopt that plan I will consider you "in it" but I have hopes to dispose of it very soon without going to that trouble.

The Cal' still remains intact at the residence of the heirs at Lowell.

Very resp'

J. S. Hubbard

PS I send a rubbing of the
'98, the piece is scarcely if any circulated. Over 97 rubbing fair, not made, I & H
